Hops and Props, Suds and Sails at Seattle Boat Show's 2nd Annual Craft Beer Night — Friday January 31, 2014

SEATTLE – Last year the Seattle Boat Show debuted its Sails & Ales Craft Beer Night. It turned out to be one of the most popular features in the Show's 67 year history—after all what could be better than toasting the very best in Washington craft beers while shopping for the boat of one's dreams? That's why it's back by popular demand, with even more brews available for tasting and the addition of a cider this year.

The Seattle Boat Show at Century Link Field and South Lake Union runs Friday, January 24 – Sunday, February 2, 2014. Sails & Ales presented by S3 Maritime, will take place on Friday January 31st from 5-10pm. Nine tasting stations will be set up throughout the indoor location at CenturyLink Field, offering craft beers from 12 different Washington artisan breweries and one cidery.

The Sails & Ales Craft Beer (and Cider) Lineup:

- Angry Orchard Cider
- Dick's Gorilla and Danger Ale
- Elliott Bay Brewing B-town Brown and Pilot Lite
- Elysian Mens Room
- Fremont Pale Ale
- Georgetown Lucile and Manny's
- Hale's Pale Ale
- Mac & Jack's
- Pike Kilt Lifter
- Redhook Audible
- Skagit River Brewery Sculler IPA
- Silver City IPA and Ridgetop Red
- Skuttlebutt Gale Force IPA

Packages for Sails & Ales may be purchased online for $27 at <http://www.seattleboatshow.com/buy-tickets.html>. This price includes a single adult admission to the show valid throughout the day at both locations, plus a complimentary souvenir craft beer glass (available while supplies last) and six beer tasting tokens. Tickets for Sails & Ales will also be available at the Box Office.

About the Seattle Boat Show

The Seattle Boat Show, Indoors +Afloat is the West Coast's largest boats show and features two locations, which share 1,000 recreational watercraft and more than 400 exhibitors. There are hundreds of seminars and the latest innovations in accessories (more than three acres of them) at the CenturyLink Field Event Center, plus world-class yachts in their natural habitat on South Lake Union. A free shuttle runs between both locations.

Unique to the Seattle Boat Show is the large variety of boats on display. At other shows, you may find yourself in a sea of bass boats or wakeboard boats. At the Seattle show, the boats on display are representative of the wide range of boating available in the region. The Pacific Northwest and British Columbia are home to perhaps the largest variety of boating in the world – whether it's wakeboarding on the inland lakes, salmon fishing on Puget Sound or off Vancouver Island, sailing in the San Juan or Gulf Islands, kayaking in the streams and rivers, or cruising to Alaska. Every type of boating available in the region is on display at the Seattle Boat Show.

There are also approximately 200 free seminars during the ten days of the show. No other show in North America matches the Seattle seminar schedule in terms of the quality, variety and volume of seminars offered. Some of the world's top experts are presenters.
